Weekly Newsletter

Friday 2nd May 2025

Hello Everyone,

Welcome back, I hope you had a lovely Easter Break! What a week of sunshine we have had!! Could I urge parents to apply 'Once a Day' sun cream to their children when we know it is going to be hot, this will help protect them and mean they don't get into a mess when trying to put sun cream on themselves! Also, send in hats and caps to add to the protection.

Over the coming weeks, you will receive a letter about P.E. kit and what we are planning to do on your child's P.E. day, this will make things easier for you and mean more P.E. time for the pupils.

Have a lovely Bank Holiday Weekend!

Funny of the Week

One of younger pupils, popped in to the staffroom the other day and saw Mrs Day eating lunch! Pupil looked up and yelled, 'Hello, Miss Day and Night!' giggled and skipped off! Priceless!!!

Subject of the Week

For this week, it will have to be History. As I am writing this newsletter, Year 3's special visitor is setting up in the hall! They have an 'Egyptian Day' and will be learning lots of fascinating and gory facts including how to mummify a body!!!

Reminders

School is closed Monday 5th May, due to Bank Holiday!

Hopefully, a few more classes will join the list over the coming term. Please remember, the expectation for your child is to be present 96% of the time - minimum!

Staff News

Not news from a phase today, but news about a couple of our staff at Christ Church!

Mr Harris and Miss Allen have been training hard for the last few months and on Sunday they both completed the Manchester Marathon, in sweltering conditions! You may have seen Mr Harris hobbling around school due to sore muscles and huge blisters. Huge congratulations to them both for completing such an amazing feat!!
