Weekly Newsletter

Friday 14th March 2025

Hello Everyone,

I hope you have had a good week! Unfortunately, I need to talk about parking on the school site again. First a reminder, that only those parents/carers who have 'Blue Badges' or have spoken directly to me, should be coming through the gates. If you do not have permission, you are endangering the lives of our pupils. Second, if you come through the gates, park sensibly, this may mean you get blocked in for a couple of minutes, but that is the risk you take by entering the site. Third, keep to the speed limit of 5 mph.

A massive thank you to all who supported their children with costumes for World Book Day, photos overleaf!!

Funny of the Week

This weeks funny comes from a pupil in Year 1 who made a card for the student teacher who is leaving us today. But instead of it saying 'sorry you're leaving' it read 'sorry you're living!' The thought was there though!

Subject of the Week

This week, I want to talk about wider opportunities. Next week, Year 5 will be attending the 'Kabaddi World Cup' in Wolverhampton. This will be an amazing experience and the opportunity to watch a totally different sport!

World Book Day

Attendance

Well done, six classes over 95% attendance. Well done, Miss Chapman's class, top of the charts with 98.7%! Bit of a treat for you guys.

There are still some horrible bugs going round and Chicken Pox, so if you child has a tummy upset etc... please do not send them in, as they spread like wildfire.

If you are unsure about what to do, contact the main office.

News from a PHASE

It's been an exciting week in Key Stage One! Year One, have been busy designing moving storybooks with lever systems, in DT. Their storybooks are now proudly displayed alongside the works of Roald Dahl and Julia Donaldson in our classrooms. Year Two have thoroughly enjoyed their new History unit, 'Schools in the Past' highlighted by a surprise visit from a Victorian Headmaster! They were certainly relieved when Miss Ansell and Mr Harris returned! Next week, Year Two are looking forward to the Black Country Museum trip and we all can't wait to celebrate Red Nose Day.
