Weekly Newsletter

Friday 14th February 2025

Hello All,

I hope you are well. This half term has definitely flown by, I can't believe we are halfway through February already!

The big news this week is that Miss LeMoigne will be leaving us today to start her maternity leave. It is a very exciting time for her family and I am sure you will join with me in wishing her all the very best for the coming weeks. We can't wait to see her little one in the flesh, hopefully sometime in April! Good luck, Miss!

Mrs Johnson will be taking over as the class teacher in Nursery and Mrs Fletcher will be the Early Years Lead for the duration of the maternity leave.

Wishing you all a lovely Half Term!

Funny of the Week

Watching the coach driver trying to get all the suitcases in the baggage storage!
Unbelievable!!

Subject of the Week

Definitely, 'Outdoor Education', it has been great seeing all the 'Condoover' photos this week. I really have missed going!!

Reminders

School will reopen on Monday 24th February at normal time. Breakfast Club will be open as normal. Could I ask that if booking a place in Breakfast Club, you do so by the Friday of the previous week, so we can staff accordingly.

Attendance

Wow, what a week! 10 Classes had attendance over 95%, that's brilliant!

Especially well done to Miss Tolley's Class with 99% and to Moonlight who reached the magical 100%, again!

I am sure there will be a little treat from your teachers for such brilliant attendance! Well done, kids!

Can we get 2 classes with 100% after half term?

News from a PHASE

In Early Years this week, the children have been busy learning all about Valentine's Day. We have found out how Valentine's Day is celebrated and even joined in some celebrations ourselves, such as making cards to share with our loved ones. To finish the week, we invited our adults in to complete some Valentine's Crafts. There was tissue paper, glitter and lots of red and pink flying around. We loved sharing this experience of working together in school and hope our adults are able to join us again in the future! Thank you to all who came!
